

Excuse me, but I'm very hungry. Do you think I can have tea with you?

Assembly with Dermot O'Leary

Years 3, 4, and 5 enjoyed a zoom assembly with Dermot O'Leary this week, where he talked all about his new book in the Toto the Ninja Cat range, and gave lessons in story writing and illustration. Has your child suddenly been drawing ninja cats? They were so inspired to get started on their own ideas!

What season would you want to make and why if you had the power? By Orlaith in Year 5

Winning Answer by Elliot in Foundation Stage

I would make spring so we could smell the flowers.

Winning Answer by Megan in Year 2

I would have a freedom season where everyone can do what they want to do as sometimes you just need a break.

Winning Answer by Tobias in Year 6

I would make a season about peace and kindness, as the world needs some peace and kindness. People are making fun of people's skin colour and being unkind.

CELEBRATING EACH OTHER, AND THE JOURNEY WE ARE ON

Lakeside Theatre

We are so proud of and so impressed with all our poets from Years 3 and 5 who performed in front of TWO HUNDRED people at the Lakeside Theatre this week. Children from all of the schools were incredible, and we were humbled to be part of it. Essex Children's University, Essex Book Festival, University of Essex, and Eastside Educational Trust all worked together to put on such a professional, fun, and powerful event.

Red Nose Day

There are many red noses and happy faces in school today, including Captain Jamie – who is taking his role VERY seriously complete Gertrude the steam train.

Foundation Stage at the Jam Jar

Foundation Stage have been learning the story of The Tiger Who Came to Tea, and wanted to experience a real café; so this week they went on a walk in the village to visit The Jam Jar.

The children were very polite, and even had discussions on the cost of items on the menu and what coins they should use.

Easter Food Parcels

If you need a food parcel for over the Easter break please do let us know by next Wednesday 23rd March so we can make the necessary arrangements.

They will likely be ready for collection on Thursday 31st March or Friday 1st April. Thank you.
